Tom Schwartz, prexy of the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., tells us that his remodeled store, which will include the old bank quarters and the former Perry Stationery, will increase the floor space by 40%. However, by the use of modern fixtures and shelves the actual space will be more than dou-bled. Self service will be encouraged in the new building which follows a popular trend in merchandising.

Tom and his partners, Sid
Westfall and Emile Smith, are a trio of good fellows who are always ready to give a help-ing hand to any civic enter-prise needing a boost. That's why it's such a genuine pleasure to see their enthusiasm for their new undertaking. The remodeling will take about 8 weeks. We hope to have a sketch to show you soon.

An Eagle River, Wisconsin, newspaper carries a restaurant ad which says: "Our chickens are stewed every day and our coffee is drunk every day." And we thought it was a dry town.

The beautiful paper wistaria blossoms which the Chamber of Commerce placed in the stores during the Wistaria Treasure Hunt days were the work of Florence Marshall. She started to make them in February and by March 29 she had completed 500 of them. Quite an accomplishment when you consider that she works every day at Garlands and did the work after hours.

We should probably get out an extra on this one: Maggie Ascher had a vacation! Maggie, who is always up to her ears in work, managed to take a little holiday over the Easter weekend. She, with a friend, Mrs. Jerry Harris, trailered to Phoenix and Scottsdale. We hope the shock of a few free urs has done her no damage.

The Chamber of Commerce has sent out 150 letters to property owners asking them to ome members of our energetic C. of C. There are now 70 members. That's only a start, say our ambitious lads.

We think the Garden Club has struck real gold by inviting the community to participate in furnishing plants for landscaping the new library grounds. You'll find a form to fill out on page 8 of the NEWS if you have something you'd like to donate. If you are plantless, money is green and will be greatly appreciated. If you are moneyless, then work will help and many of you have green thumbs, we know.

Red Cross Still Short of Goal

Local Red Cross authorities have announced that the swimming and life saving lessons previously made available to young people in Sierra Madre may have to be curtailed this year if the current campaign for funds does not improve. So far, only $4,967.96 has been collected toward the goal of $6,891.

For ten years the Red Cross here has been giving swim-ming lessons to children every summer, teaching them not to be afraid of the water but also what safety measures should be taken. Many of the pupils have advanced to junior and senior life saving grades and the benefits of these courses have been considered of incalculable value.

One of the greatest hopes that the funds drive may succeed, even if it has to be extended into May, stems from contributions that are still being received at Red Cross headquarters, 41 S. Baldwin Ave., from residents who were not contacted in the house-to-house calls made just recently.

A number of business establishments and other organizations which have promised contributions also have yet to be received. In the meantime, the Red Cross home services continue

'Give a Chair' Drive Starts For Library

Friends of the Sierra Madre Library this week launched a "Give a Chair" Drive as part of their plan to furnish the new Memorial Room in the soon-to-be-completed city library building.

"As a group, our resources are limited," explained Mrs. Charles James, finance committee chairman. "What funds we have now have been allocated to purchase and paint the inside shutters for the windows. As a result, our committee has decided to ask indiviuals and groups in the community to donate the cost of one or more chairs. This seems only right, since the room will become a major meeting place for Sierra Madreans."

Mrs. James said that each of the 100 chairs needed for the room will cost $6.93, "a very low price made possible through the efforts of one of the Friends."

Donations to the "Give a Chair" Drive may be forwarded to Mrs. James, 110 Rancho Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Colvin who are the "chair committee" of the Friends, 336 Sturdevant Rd., John J. Fetters, Friends treasurer, 171 S. Baldwin Ave.

Fetters said that all checks should be made payable to "Friends of the Sierra Madre Library," and pointed out that such donations are deductible for income tax purposes.

First Quarter Building Hits All-Time High!

Building permits at a valuation of more than one million dollars were issued in Sierra Madre by the office of William R. Lees, building inspector, in the first quarter of 1955. An American Pledge

Believing, as did the Founding Fathers of this Republic, in the power of united prayer and the open affirmation of faith in Almighty God, I, as a citizen of Sierra Madre, California, join with my neighbors in the following pledge:

- (1) To encourage the opening with prayer of meetings of organizations with which I am associated.
- (2) To encourage in the home, daily expressions of gratitude to God through words of Grace at the table or in family prayer or both in order that our young people may have no misconception as to our devotion to the Divine Creator of the Universe.
- With my neighbors, to avail ourselves of our priceless freedom to join together in prayer, to demonstrate its efficacy as an invulnerable common bond and a potent weapon in a world threatened by the ungodly and
- (4) To, in all ways, make silent or audible prayer a vital and spontaneous part of my daily program of living as a return to the humility and the basic spiritual ideals which made this nation strong and great.

We warmly commend our Chief Executive, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, for opening his inaugural address with a prayer of his own composing and for directing that meetings of his Cabinet and Security Council be opened with prayer. Further evidence of our return, as a people, to the basic spiritual concepts of our Founding Fathers is seen in the opening of rooms for prayer and meditation in our National Capitol and in the Home Office of the United Nations.

On all these things we invoke the blessings of Almighty God.

Walter Thurber for the past several weeks for the purpose of formulating the above "American Pledge." Composed of men from all religions and both major political parties, the ideals set forth in the pledge will be the basis of several public meetings scheduled for the coming months. A major meeting is planned for the evening of Memorial Day in the City School auditorium, a spokesman for the group said this week.

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand who was a Sierra Madre visitor this week was the first to sign the pledge. Others who have worked on it are Charles E. Louk, James Wolfe, Arthur F. Fox, A. E. Morgan, Stanley Schilberg, Graham Patterson, William Bowers, Dr. Milton Valois, David Allen, Dr. Frederick Whitney, Harry Lange and Tom Schwartz.

Requiem Mass will be conducted for Phillip M. Garvin, 74, father of Vincent E. Garvin, 1621/2 Santa Anita Ct., this morning in Dixon, Neb.

A native of County Cork, Ireland, Mr. Garvin had lived in Compton for 12 years where he died Easter morning.

Besides his son, Vincent, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Frank Foster of Lynwood, Mrs. Jack Swift, Whittier, and Mrs. Jim Parker, Compton; and four other sons, Richard, in Compton, John in St. Paul, Minn., Harold in Arcadia, and Robert in Akran, Iowa.

A person who wishes to remain anonymous has paid one month's rent on the building, awaiting the formal organization of the club.

The splendid turnout at Tuesday's meeting is indicative of the real need for youth activities in Sierra Madre, Mrs. Edith Dane, president of the Coordinating Council, pointed out today.

"We feel that the venture will fill a great need here. We are happy to see our young people take the sincere interest that was shown at Tuesday's meeting," Mrs. Dane said.

Pledges Asked For Library Landscaping

Would you like to have a part in landscaping the new library? You will now have the opportunity to do so as a result of action taken at the Monday night meeting of the Sierra Madre Garden Club when it unanimously voted to sponsor a drive for pledges to assist in beautifying the grounds surrounding the handsome new library building which will soon be completed. Three types of pledges will be requested—quality planting material for shade and filtered sun; money in any amount, and work. On page 8 of this week's issue of the NEWS is a pledge which you may fill out and mail indicating the type of help you are willing to give.

The plants pledged will be coordinated by a professional landscape gardener along lines suggested by Robert Ainsworth, architect of the building. Plants suggested by the Garden Club are aucuba, aralia, agapanthus. azaleas, bird of paradise, ferns, holly and delicate palms of all varieties, aspidistra philodendrous, flax and low ground covers such as begonias saxifrage Murray Owen, acting president of the Garden Club, said at the Monday night meeting, "Every family in Sierra Madre has at least one good plant it should be proud to the library. Sierra Madre has a fine building and it deserves the best of planting.

The club also voted $200 to the landscaping project to be used for labor or professional

List Cancer's Danger Signs

Mrs. George B. Holmes, chairman for the Sierra Madre Unit of the American Cancer Society, today pointed out the fact that more and more cancer's seven danger signals are leading to detection of the disease in time to enable effective treatment. Mrs. Holmes listed the signs

Any sore that does not heal; a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; unusual bleeding or discharge; any change in a wart or mole; per sistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; persistent hoarseness or cough; change in normal bowel hab-

These symptoms do not always mean cancer, but they should always mean a prompt visit to your doctor.

"The importance of early diagnosis of cancer cannot be overemphasized," Mrs. Holmes declared. "Last year approximately 75,000 cancer patients who might have been saved died because proper treatment was begun too late. In an effort to save these lives, A.C.S. is conducting an intensive educational campaign to make known to everyone the seven common symptoms of cancer and the importance of having yearly physical checkups even though no cancer symtoms are suspected," she continued.

Tennis Tourney at City Park Sunday

Twenty entrants have signed for the first 1955 Sierra Madre Tennis Tournament to be played Sunday at City Park and more are expected to register before the 6 o'clock deadline tonight.

The tournament scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. Sunday, will be played according to the same rules as the tournaments of last year, with competition limited to doubles only. An entry fee of one dollar will be charged to provide prizes for the winners and runners-up.

Those who wish to participate should call Peter Cowell at CU. 5-2754 before the deadline expires this evening. A drawing for partners will be held at 9 p.m. tomorrow at the home of W. J. Owen, 20 W. Mira Monte.

WELCOME SIGN

The welcome sign which has been stored at the Water Department since its forced re-moval from Michillinda and Foothill will be installed at the corner of Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvd. within the next few days. Councilman Harold Roberts, who has consistently advocated this location, saw his fight won Tuesday night when the Council voted to bring the welcome sign out of its hiding place and to give it the dignity any welcome sign is entitled to receive.

A letter was read from the PTA in which members of the school organization pointed out the necessity of stop signs along Grandview Ave., where children walk to and from school. It was reported to the police department for study and recommendation.

In another letter the school board requested sidewalks in the vicinity of the new Sierra Mesa school. City Administra-tor Lawrence Bevington was instructed by the Council to make a survey on the attitude of the property owners in the area before proceeding with further action.

Council members agreed to purchase the home and property owned by Wallace W. Scott, 242 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., for the sum of $21,000. If this offer is accepted by Mr. Scott the development and expansion of City Park as drawn by C. Jacques Hahn will be undertaken.

Methodists Decide New Church Name

By vote of the members, the name of Church of Our Redeemer, Methodist, has been changed to Sierra Madre Methodist Church. The decision became official by action of the Fourth Quarterly Conference on Tuesday, April 5. Dr. Fred Trotter, Superintendent of the Pasadena District of the Methodist Church, presided at the business meeting which adopted the new name.

There has been some feeling for a considerable time that the former name was not entirely satisfactory. It was de-cided to investigate the matter of a change of name. A committee was appointed to investigate the sentiment of the membership of the Church. It was discovered that enough feeling in favor of a change of name existed to warrant serious consideration of the matter. The subject was scheduled to become an item of business at the Official Board.

The Official Board discussed changing the name of the church, but felt that it should be a matter in which the entire membership participated. To facilitate the decision, the Board considered possible alternative names. Several names were suggested and by secret ballot vote Sierra Madre Methodist Church was selected to be submitted to the membership for a vote. Ballots were sent out to all member families of the church and by an overwhelming majority it was decided to change the name of the church to Sierra Madre Methodist Church.

The vote of the membership was made official by accept-ance by the Official Board and final approval by the Quarterly Conference. It is felt that with this new name, the Methodist Church is recognizing the rich heritage of the community in which it is located.

Survey Reveals Roofing-Heating-Lighting Inadequate at City School Outmoded heating units and inadequate lighting stand high Estimates for the installation of individual vented gas heaters on the list of needs required by the 25-year-old City school building at Auburn and Highland Avenues. These along with extensive repairs to the roof would be covered under the 55c tax rate increase which the voters of the local district will be asked to approve at the April 29 election.

According to an electrical survey made by the consulting engineer firm of Hilburg, Hengstler and Turpin, new panelboards and classroom branch circuit wiring are needed to bring the classroom lighting to a minimum standard (25 candles) at an estimated cost of $2,319. Installation of a main switchboard and service feeders would cost $4,144 and 1,000-watt lamps in existing fixtures, $362. These items which are essential to conform to the State of California and local electrical codes, total $6.825.

The engineers further recommend repairs to the auditorium lighting dimmer control board to prevent possible replacement of equipment, new lighting fixtures in the cafeteria and auditorium and repairs to the stage border and footlights for the safety of persons handling the equipment. Estimate of these

The outmoded heating units in each classroom has been a concern of the school board for some time. Although the fixtures were adequate when the building was constructed 25 years ago, they are antiquated by the many improvements now available.

with forced circulation in the existing fixtures would cost approximately $180 a unit, or $4,500 for the 24 classrooms. New roofing to the building is an imperative need. An estimate from a representative of the Lytle Roofing Corp. placed the price of the entire job at $15,000. This work could be spread over number of years, with the worst section receiving immediate attention at an estimated $2,000. It was also recommended that the bad area be done within a year to prevent further damage to the interior plaster.

Painting of the entry hall, cafeteria, auditorium and upstairs hall at cost of $1,900 is also suggested under the improvement plan. Installation of acoustical tile, lighting fixtures in three classrooms at a cost of $500 per room still remains to be done.

If the funds are voted these basic needs would be spread over several years. When completed, money would then be available for replacement or repairs of other equipment, including clock and bell systems and installation of clocks and phones in the annex. Maintenance of the community's % million dollar investment in schools will be sizeable items in future budgets, if the buildings are to be kept in condition.

All of the above figures are estimated, the board points out. chool contracts are let after competitive bids are received. No bids need be accepted if the costs appear unreasonable and all bids are opened at public meetings.

LIVING DANGEROUSLY

The lot of the school bus driver is a hard one. Take the case of one Lawrence Esposito, who transports youngsters in Fairfield, Conn. Esposito is not a man to anger quickly, and an occasional water gun on the back of the neck was taken in stride. But when the kids began to "pour it on." he stopped to lecture them. That merely stopped the bus-not the kids. They just laughed. So Esposito drove to police headquarters where the kids were frisked of half a dozen water "weapons," and Esposito had the last laugh—a dry sense of humor, no doubt.

Profiles of Local Artists

Bichette Pannetier

By Sewall Clark

This week the NEWS presents the third in a series of articles to appear from time to time, devoted to the human interest and local color found in the lives of Sierra Madre artists whose works are now on permanent exhibit in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension. Because Sierra Madre, among other things, long has been known as an artists' haven these articles will be concerned with the individual artist's way of life, with personality, more than prestige. Order of appearance will have nothing to do with the artist's rating either as professional or amateur.

No one but a Frenchman could pronounce the name of Bichette Pannetier correctly, but even then he wouldn't have it right so far as accuracy is concerned because when Bichette was born in Sydney, Australia, she was given the name of Blanche Chaniel. She was the daughter of a French captain aboard a freighter that sailed the South Seas and the early part of her life sounds like a chaper from a novel by Somerset Maugham.

So far as she remembers, she tried her first painting aboard her father's boat where paint brushes were used for more than making pictures-and her motive may have been for no more reason than because her father may have said, "Here, child, try the brush upon this board, and keep out of harm's

Regardless of what her motives may have been at the age of four, she still was painting in later years when she lived in France where she attended La Grand Chumier and Les Beaux Arts for three years to see what more formal instruction could do for her. After landscapes and still lifes caught her fancy she made some of her first sales while her work was exhibited during the Colonial Exposition in Paris

The "native" influence which is so evident in her painting stems not only from the tropical scenes she knew in childhood but also from the fact that she married Captain Rolland Bois who, like her father. sailed a freighter into many oceans south of the equator. Although their home was in North Africa, Bichette visited about 30 countries during those why shouldn't we welcome every chance to compare our system with other ideologies? Why shouldn't we welcome evchance to sell our ideas, confident that no one can show us any better ones? I like Churchill's idea of a conference 'at the summit."

If I were President I would send out an invitation something like this:

"We know that war is too horrible and too ruinous for asonable men or nations to undertake except as a last resource. Let's get together in a friendly way, with no agenda, just to see if we can't find a fair and mutually beneficial way of settling our differences. Neither of us will be under any obligation to buy. But think what may happen if we don't come to reasonable understanding."

Pierre, who owned a cocoanut and coffee plantation, "went off to war" a few years, but after he returned they moved to the west coast of the United States because they felt America was the best place in the world in which to rear their two daugh-

Campfire Log

The Flying Blue Birds, Sierra Madre School fourth graders, have had an exciting spring season under President Becky Rence, assisted by Vice-Presidena Ellen Clark and Secretary Barbara Paige. The group recently enjoyed a nature walk at Sierra Madre Villa Park guided by Mrs. Luckans of the County Park and Recreation Department, the occasion being a surprise birthday party for member, Patty Buckner. The girls also attended the children's opera, "Pepito's Golden Flower," given by the Pasadena Junior League at the Civic Auditorium.

Easter week was highlighted by a special trip on April 5 via chartered bus with other San Gabriel Valley area Camp Fire Girls to the Marine Oceanarium at Portuguese Bend. Their own private Easter party was held on Saturday morning, April 9, when they gathered again at Sierra Madre Villa Park for a hike and cookout, followed by an Easter egg hunt, Indian style, following Indian trail signs. The party, planned by Mrs. Hubert Clark, included, besides those mentioned: Vicki Atkinson, Cathy Clardy, Nora Justice, Margaret Pedigo, Susan Ann Robinson, Joanne Vorster and three new members: Kathy Ower, Cheryl Stubbs and Diane Carew. Chaperoning were Mrs. Ulrich Paige, Mrs. Alice Pedigo and leader, Mrs. Helmut Vorster,

Brownie News

Troop 1 of Sierra Madre School all went to visit Kellogg's Arabian Horse Ranch Sunday. The girls sat on the bleachers with their eyes glued to the antics and performances of the beautiful horses. A good time was had by all.

Two meetings ago the Brownies made 20 place mat Easter decorations for the little Indian patients at the Santa Tersita TB Sanitarium, to brighten their dinner trays at Easter.

Last Wednesday, the Brownies met at their leader's home. Mrs. Esther Herzberg. They received their shoulder patch numerals and two members of the Troop, Christine Hawgood and Sherryl Ullman, received their first year flowers, which are worn attached to the Brownie pin. The girls had oodles of fun hunting Easter baskets hidden in the front yard. The German Shepherd dog and the Brownies made quick work of the goodies. A Hawaiian party is the next project planned by Troop I Brownies. They are now making colorful crepe-paper leis to wear in a Hawaiian dance when they will be hosts to the Brownie Troop of Sierra Mesa

The ranks of Troop 1 are swelling. Members now include: Barbara Bates, Candy Bush, Nancy Carr, Susan Flynn, Waveney Gadberry, Janice Háberman, Barbara Harb, Eleanor Herzberg Marilyn Kirk, Janice Kunahiro, Judy Sarauwatori, Pat Slaney, April Smith, Karen Roberts, Roberta Roberts. Funeral Conducted For Earl H. Littell

Funeral services were held for Earl H. Littell of Venice, Calif., Tuesday, April 3. Mr. Littell, whose sister, Miss Eva M. Littell, lives here at 389 N. Lima, also was a resident of Sierra Madre from 1907 to 1915.

Other survivors are his widow, Carrill; five daughters, Mrs. Dorothy James, Mrs. Es-ther Shaw, Mrs. Edith Reed, Mrs. Ruth Bence, Mrs. Sylvia Lull; and one son, Richard.

During his residence here Mr. Littell was a pupil at Sierra Madre City School.

WALTER H. BRAUMANN, 247 N. Hermosa, was presented April with a Certificate of Service Award in honor of his 44 years of service in the express business. Mr. Braumann started his express career for the United States Express Company in New York City in December, 1911. Now that he has reached retirement age, Mr. Braumann plans to go back to school to study law. Photo shows left to right: Braumann (holding certificate), C. C. Editor Sierra Madre News:

Please permit me to take advantage of the present awakening of the good people of Sierra Madre occasioned by the heated controversy over the proposed new Zoning Ordinance, to mention another ordinance or rather Act. No. 5197 Deerings California General Laws, better known as the "Municipal Weed Abatement Act," which is both inadequate and poorly enforced. It has been noted that delinquent or warning notices are posted once a year on offending properties during the spring growing season but that cleanup is not usually done until everything has gone to seed and has been well broadcast by wind and birds over the surrounding

Last year the City's cleanup crew in this area disced the weeds, seeds and all into the ground which should produce a fine crop this year. Burning same would seem more sensible. It was further noted that some very prolific weed patches in back and side yards were not posted or cleaned up. The writer was once informed by the City Council that said Act was primarily for fire protection, not for civic appearance. It is suggested that the City Council consider it their duty to promote, not only once per year, but year around cleanliness of all property and thus achieve a neat and attractive citywide look as well as fire protection and sanitation. It is quite discouraging to see a few illkept properties scattered throughout an otherwise immaculate neighborhood depressing the appearance and property values of all, just as one rotten apple soon affects the

May we ask that each Councilman consider what his recourse might be under present laws if John Sloven Doe, his neighbor, permitted the property to run wild with weeds and trash, lack of repairs and paint, and all the other offensive little deficiencies that a careless person can irritate his neighbors with, thoughtlessly or otherwise. And let's not overlook the hazardous blind street intersections around the city caused by too high fences, hedges and shrubbery which

In conclusion, let us agree that any Act or Ordinance worthy of enactment should be enforced fairly, firmly and continuously, or else things get out of hand the minors become major offenses. To depend or to act only upon complaints of citizens to enforce the law is a vacillating sort of enforcement that engenders neighborhood friction, contempt of the law, and results in frustration of the good efforts of the lawmakers, be they City, State or Federal.

Very truly yours, M. W. DAY.

To the Editor:

The question of extended bus service and route in Sierra Madre is of first importance. The presence of only 14 persons at the hearing in City Hall last Tuesday morning was not from lack of interest but rather, one suspects, from the inconvenient hour for workers who use the buses or from ignorance that the hearing was be held. Extending the Metropolitan Coach lines in Si-Madre from Mountain Trail to Santa Anita Dr. ("the Double Drive"), thence north to Grandview and back west to Baldwin, as proposed, would afford potential transportation to several hundred additional persons who must otherwise, as now, either: (a) stay at home, if elderly, alone or frail and of limited means; (b) hire a taxi to the station or Triangle, and back; (c) walk in all sorts of weather; or (d) be taken to the nearest bus stop by family car-an increase in street traffic much greater than the bus would create.

This latter point removes at least part of the objection, raised by one person at Tuesday's meeting, that the bus coming down Baldwin would be a hazard to school children. Who are more careless on foot, modern school children or grown-ups? Moreover, it is the writer's considered opinion, from observation, that bus drivers are at least as careful as the drivers of private carsand their speed on our town streets is much slower. The speed with which many private cars go up and down Baldwin's steep grade would be quite impossible for any bus-except one out of control. By all means, let us have both changes in the bus route.

Thanks are due to our Chamber of Commerce for its efforts to achieve this major improvement in our public transportation-300 to 400 persons are said to use our bus lines daily under present conditions. With proper news announcements of evening meeting at City Hall of interest to all bus riders and families of bus riders, actual or potential, interest should be high and attendance large, both of daily commuters and of persons who do their shopping in Sierra Madre.

Sincerely yours, Edward N. Voorhees, 58 W. Mira Monte.

Chesk - Cha - May Campfire group visited the Avon factory with their leader, Mrs. Severin Sorenson. At noon they came to the home of Mrs. Kenneth Carlson where they enjoyed luncheon prepared by Louise Carlson, Krista Engel, Sharon Gillette, Judy Wodrich and Janice Tancrel. The table was decorated with place mats, place cards and napkins in the Campfire motif and red and white flowers in a blue vase arranged by Louise Carlson. In the afternoon the group visited the office and plant of the Sierra Madre NEWS.

PAUL CARTERS HOME FOR SHORT VISIT

Former Councilman Paul Carter and Mrs. Carter arrived in California for a three weeks' visit last week. Mr. Carter was assigned to the Chicago office of the Matson Navigation Co. last year and this is his first trip home since that time. Mrs. Carter is visiting her niece in Santa Monica during part of their stay. "California never looked better to me," he told the NEWS. "It was bleak and gray in Chicago when we left. It is wonderful to see all of the green countryside here again."

Girl Scouts News

The adventures of a Mariner Girl Scout troop aboard the 96foot brigantine, "Yankee," are thrillingly portrayed in "Mari-ners Ahoy," a two-reel Warner Brothers Technicolor featurette which comes to the local Sierra Madre Theater this week as an added attraction to the feature presentation. It will run from April 15 through April 19. The Yankee, commanded by Irving M. Johnson and his wife, takes the girls on a cruise of the New England coast Under the guidance of Commander Johnson, the girls actually learn how to sail the huge vessel, performing all the tasks a crew of men would normally do. They swab the decks and even climb the tall masts in a violent storm to take in the sails.

This film is presented here as a public service by the Sierra Madre Theater and the Girl Scouts of Sierra Madre. It should be a "must" on everyone's movie list.

Eternal Life Quality, Not Quantity, Says Rev. G. Lindsay

this Day is a promise, is not stretching on and on, without any ending," the Rev. George W. Lindsay said in his Easter sermon at the Cogregational Church last Sunday. "It is, rather, a quality of life, depth, rather than length. It is life lived with a sense of the infinite. It is new life, begin.

ning here and now." Mr. Lindsay pointed out that there was nothing particularly remarkable about the Resurrection the first Easter, except that it was singularly unspectacular - too ordinary ever to have been invented. No more was it the occasion for the setting aside of the natural laws of life and death in a single instance, for a particular person. Rather was it an affirmation of the central truth of the

To Speak in Santa

Barbara Saturday

"The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many." This verse from Mark (10:45) will be the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Doc-trine of Atonement" in all

Christian Science churches. The healing import of Jesus' atonement and its practical application to human affairs is pointed out by John in his first epistle (2:1,2) when he says, "My little children . . . if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. And He is the propritiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world." "Man cannot exceed divine Love, and so atone for him-self," writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin and death by the law of Spirit,-the law of divine Love." (p. 19).

Catholic High School Again Under Study By Planning Board

Again "under advisement" by Pasadena Planning Commissioners is the appeal of the Catholic church to erect a boys' high school at the corner of Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvds. The commissioners heard again arguments pro and con after Canfield residents registered a new objection with the City Directors.

A delegation led by Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander and represented by Attorney William Hogoboom, told commissioners the school would be a nuisance noise and traffic-wise and would devalue property.

Earlier the three-man zoning board of the commission granted the use variance asked by the church, with a number of restrictions for the building and landscaping. Residents of the area protested before City Directors that the entire board of nine members instead of only the zoning committee should have heard their plea. Directors then tossed the problem back to the planning commissioners, who must rule

Field Cub Pack 379 Has Award Program; Four Are Graduated

Eugene Field Cub Scout Pack 379 met March 25 at the Field cafetorium to make a number of awards, including graduation certificates to four boys who are entering Boy Scout patrols.

Cubmaster Norman Shanks presided at the awarding of the following badges:

Wolf—Bill Gillett, Denny Johnson, Gary Gero and Stephen Seaholm. Bear — Bryant Silliman, Woody Haut, Bob Parish and

Curt Shirar. Lion—Dennis Cross and Roger Shanks.

Webelows-Robert Eichelber. ger, Bill Taylor, Allen Underwood and David Robinson These four also were awarded graduation certificates and plaques signifying they had completed their Cubbing. Scoutmaster Curly Bush was on hand to welcome the boys into Patrol 377, and he awarded the tenderfoot pin to Allen Underwood, who already has completed his first Scout work. Prizes also were awarded to many boys for their salesmanship in the recent doughnut sale sponsored by the two Field

Court Asked to Rule On Victory Park Use

Maintaining that Victory Park could best serve the peo-ple of Pasadena as a high school site, the Board of Education has filed suit against the City of Pasadena, which holds title to the property, ask-ing the Superior Court to rule the land should be sold for the Previously Pasadena refused to sell the land on grounds the property still was necessary for park purposes. Also to be decided in the suit is the price to be paid, if the award is made to the school.

Ranch Guild Spring Party Tomorrow

Ranch residents are reminded of the spring dessert card party, sponsored by the Hastings Ranch Guild to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, which is slated for tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in the Sierra Madre Woman's Clubhouse.

Mrs. Ralph A. Judd, general chairman for the event, has announced there are still tickets available and may be procured at the door. There is a $1 minimum donation. There will be fun for all and door-prizes for the lucky ones, so plan to come to the party and enjoy the afternoon of cards and Proceeds from the affair will be used in furthering the research program for cystic fibrosis disease which is being conducted at the Los Angeles Children's hospital.

Now you Know!

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: Is it true that an employer can be held liable for damage resulting from an employee driving his own car in the employer's business even if the emloyer doesn't know about it?

ANSWER: Yes - and even if the employer has expressly forbidden it. The best out for the employer is to make certain he has adequate limits of Non-Ownership Liability insurance. The premium is small but the coverage is vitally important.

Surprise Party for Terri Doan Friday

The lights were out at the "3 D's Cafe & Malt Shop," 44 N. Baldwin Ave., promptly at closing time, 9 o'clock Friday night, but they went on again all at once soon afterwards when the daughter of the owners. Terri Doan, stepped inside thinking the she was about to help her parents close the place. Instead of facing the usual chore of filling the sugar bowls, however, Terri was greeted by a roomful of shouting teen-agers in an atmosphere of many-colored balloons and other festive decorations arranged as part of a surprise party to remind Terri that on that day she was "Sweet Six-

After the party began she was presented with a yellow and white birthday cake with her name on it, and from then on all the ice cream, cokes, cake, and dancing that anyone could take was "on the house" until the celebration ended at midnight. Those who attended, along with the proud parents, Glenn and Loie Dean, were John Sparks, Mannuel Vehare, Howard Whitson, Gary Rhodus, Diddy Hurwit, Butch Hurwit, Marcus Woodward, Courtney Shropshire, Dorothy Jackson, Jeri Doan, Dick Stirton, Donna Broomfield, Ted Dammeyer, Butch Burrows, and Peter Garcia. And, of course, "Miss Sweet Sixteen," herself—Terri

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at ble Mortuary Chapel for Frances Hill Davis who The Metropolitan Coach Lines has informed the City that died at her home, 735 E. Grandview Ave., Easter Day, April 10, following a brief illness.

A native of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. Davis had been a resident of Sierra Madre for 32 years. She is survived by her widow-Roy H. Davis of Sierra In the opinion of City Attorney Cornyn, the State Legisla-Madre; a daughter, Mrs. Harry G. C. Neumann, Granada Hills. Calif., and one grandson.

> cause we are off the beaten track, all other streets must be neglected."

The Council requested Cornyn to seek a court ruling on the validity of the Road Commissioner's position. The City Attorney agreed to this action, although he believes the Commissioner has ample legal grounds, under present laws, for his attitude. "The law must be changed by the State," he

Alpha Chi Alums to Hear Decorator Speak

Alpha Chi Omega Junior Alumnae of San Gabriel Valley will meet at 7:30 p.m. April 14 at the home of Mrs. Glen L. Taylor, Jr., Temple City. Speaker for the evening will be Lorenza DeYola Young, an interior decorator, who will discuss "Contemporary Decor." Mrs. Norman Anderson, Hastings Ranch, program chairman, will introduce the speaker. During the business meeting officers will be elected for next year.

Mrs. Robert Meserve, 3760 Hampton, was hostess during the Easter holidays at an Easter egg hunt for children of members of the alumnae group, with the older children romping in the rear garden and those under five holding forth in the front yard.

R. Blanchard Tells United Nations Aims Mr. Robert G. Blanchard, a Los Angeles attorney who is a member of the American Association for the United Nations, was the principal speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Duane Muir assisted him in the program that included a film showing and a discussion period concerning the purposes and accomplishments of the United Nations

Mr. Blanchard advocated the American support of the humanitarian and technical assistance aspects of the United Nations program for people of all countries regardless of ideological conflicts.

Next Tuesday at noon the Kiwanis luncheon meeting will be held at the Wistaria Vine, at which time the local club will be host to Kiwanians from

Women's Council Fashion Tea April 16

Weeks of planning and committee work will be culminated Saturday afternoon, April 16, when members of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Council and their guests meet at the San Marino Woman's Club, 1800 Huntington Dr., for their annual spring fashion tea at 1:30 p.m.

The clubhouse will be showered with spring blossoms to complement the exciting spring and summer fashions Lorraine

Tickets are still available for the event and may be purchased at the door.
